Anthony Drewry is an associate in the firm's Labor & Employment group. In 2024, Anthony joined the firm as an associate attorney. Anthony advises and represents employers in a broad range of employment law matters including retaliation and wrongful termination, leaves of absence and disability accommodations, workplace injuries and OSHA citations, and wage and hour issues. Prior to becoming an attorney, Anthony served as Mullen & Henzell's Law Librarian starting in 2019. While earning his law degree, Anthony interned at the Santa Barbara County District Attorney's Office. Anthony earned his law degree with honors from the Santa Barbara Colleges of Law. Before pursuing his law degree, he earned a master's degree in library and information science with honors from the University of Denver in 2016. A native of Santa Barbara, Anthony brings a deep connection to the local community and a genuine understanding of the legal landscape in the area. With a unique blend of legal expertise and a background in library science, Anthony offers a valuable perspective and a comprehensive approach to serving our clients at Mullen & Henzell.
